Overview

Attaching the Softbox

Preparing the Light Fixture

If the fixture has height adjustment knobs, raise the fixture's height so it sits above the bottom of the yoke.

Some 1 × 1 fixtures have two sets of side knobs for tilt and height adjustment. Adjust the height so the tilt knobs are in the middle of the fixture. This will make it easier to fit the softbox onto it.

Tip: Tilting the fixture upward in its yoke will make it easier to fit the softbox onto the fixture.

Attaching the Softbox

1. Open the adjustable corners held together with straps and touch-connect strips.
2. Align the softbox with a 1 × 1 light so the securing straps don't interfere with the light's rear control panel.

Note: For Luxli's Timpani, the securing straps should be on the sides of the fixture, the buckles should be on the right, and the strap that's closest to the edge of the softbox is on top.

3. Fit the top of the softbox over the fixture's top rim, and attach the upper strap across the back of the light.
4. Fit the bottom of the softbox over the fixture's bottom rim, and attach the lower strap.
5. Fit the corners over the fixture, and close the adjustable corners so the fit is snug.
6. Secure the adjustable corners with the corner straps.

Adding the Diffuser

Attach the diffuser to the innermost edge of the recessed touch-connect strip . Make sure to leave enough room for a grid.

Angler LEDSBG-1818 LED Grid for the LEDSB-1818 Softbox (sold separately)

The accessory grid narrows the beam spread and controls light spill. Attach the accessory grid to the recessed touch-connect strip on the front inner edge of the softbox.
