POLSEN®

THANK YOU FOR CHOOSING POLSEN.

Polsen's DJH-2500 headphones are designed for DJs and deliver rich sound whether you're entertaining at a club or listening to music on a mobile device. The headphones feature swiveling earcups that let you monitor your audio while keeping one ear free. A 10-foot cable gives you the freedom to move around, so you're not tethered to your turntable, computer, or mixer while you're working. The over-the-ear design isolates the sound and prevents leakage for optimum listening conditions. And the boosted bass response helps you feel and identify the beat in a loud environment and lets you hear the music exactly as the crowd hears it.

OVERVIEW

Removable cord and folding design for convenient storage and travel

Earcup swivels for one-ear monitoring

Earcup rotates 90° for on-the-shoulder monitoring

1/8 in. (3.5 mm) and 1/4 in. inputs for simultaneously monitoring two sources

Protect Your Hearing

Exposure to high sound pressure levels may cause permanent hearing loss. Avoid listening at high volumes for extended periods.

Symptoms of noise-induced hearing loss may include persistent ringing, pain, itching, or inflammation of the ears, and difficulty understanding speech.
